

At the meeting we discussed whether or not to continue meeting so that the benefits of the LOAD meeting could be continued for those of you who found them useful.

Those who attended agreed

- that they could share AOD information at other meetings in the community and hence there was no need to establish a specific replacement meeting
- That the data base of LOAD contacts would be sent to ACADS attention Chris Clark so that AOD info could still be disseminated via the list if required.